NARRATIVE: Established in 1836, Kelley Drye & Warren LLP has a dynamic and sophisticated national and international legal practice involving business organizations of all kinds, nonprofit institutions, and individuals. Our attorneys are organized into several different departments including for example, Bankruptcy, Corporate, Labor, Litigation, Real Estate, Tax, Private Clients and Employee Benefits. Our summer program provides summer associates with the opportunity to work in as many practice groups and with as many attorneys as possible. In addition, there is an emphasis on practical skills training. For example, summer associates may learn the basics of how to take and defend a deposition, observe trials and arbitrations, and directly participate in complicated corporate transactions. At Kelley Drye, you will be able to effectively develop your professional skills in a collegial atmosphere. For more information on our Firm, visit our website www.kelleydrye.com.
